

Ingrid Nicolai

Sculpture Group Show - ceramic

Artist Statement

The pure forms of vessels from antiquity and the decorative motifs of ancient Egyptian art are the source of my inspiration. In some pieces I am using the shape of the cast shadow to add another element. The colours are chosen specifically to emphasize the illusionary aspects of my work (pieces appear round but are actually flattened or compressed), and to placed them into a contemporary context with reference to the Mediterranean Sea.